NISA Named a 2016 Quality Leader by Greenwich Associates — Thanks!

February 16, 2016

Last week we received the good news that Greenwich Associates named NISA one of two Quality Leaders in the 2015 US Institutional Investment Management Service category. Over 1300 individuals at institutional investors participated in the survey evaluating their managers. This is the second year NISA received the award which was created in 2014.

It is an honor to receive this kind of recognition, and it means even more to us when it comes from our clients. For that, we wanted to say: Thank you. At NISA, we always strive for superior client service, and we are always open to ideas on how to improve.

Greenwich's annual study is an industry leading benchmark for the institutional financial services industry, interviewing individuals from over 1,052 of the largest tax-exempt funds in the U.S. The study assesses factors ranging from the quality of reporting, formal investment reviews, informal meetings and thought leadership materials to a manager's ability to understand client needs and credibility with the investment committee.

2016 Rankings announced by Coalition Greenwich on March 27, 2017. Between July and October 2016, Coalition Greenwich conducted interviews with 1,216 individuals from 1,052 of the largest tax-exempt funds in the United States. No compensation was paid by NISA in connection with obtaining or using this ranking. NISA was one of four 2016 recipients. Rankings do not represent any one client's experience because they reflect an average of experiences of clients who chose to participate. Visit
