Accolades and Thanks

March 30, 2017

We're not usually in the business of patting ourselves on the back. That being said, we received the news this week that Greenwich Associates named NISA an overall Quality Leader in U.S. Institutional Investment Management Service, along with two other firms. This marks the third year in a row that NISA has been recognized in this way.

This award seems significant to us because it is survey-based. About 1200 individuals at over 1,000 institutions with investable tax-exempt assets greater than $150mm evaluated their asset managers and other service providers, which means that many of you participated.

We always strive to do right by our clients, so it's meaningful for us to receive feedback like this. It's important to acknowledge, however, that great clients make providing top-notch client servicing easy. Thank you for your continued support, and know that we are grateful to have the opportunity to partner with you.

2017 Rankings announced on March 27, 2017 by Greenwich Associates named NISA an overall Quality Leader. No compensation was paid by NISA in connection with obtaining or using this ranking. NISA was one of three 2017 recipients. Rankings do not represent any one client's experience because they reflect an average of experiences of clients who chose to participate. Visit www.greenwich.com for more details, including past rankings and methodology.
